

Luxxury

SWEET and VICIOUS: THE REMIXES

Out May 22, 2007

Track Listing:

1. "Drunk (Janus London/Berlin Remix)"
2. "Sweet and Vicious (All Night Dance Party's More Vicious Than Sweet Remix)"
3. "Rock and Roll is Evil (Devin Dirt's Fat Elvis Remix)"
4. "Drunk (Lovesick Vocoder's at Night Version)"
5. "Sweet and Vicious (Johnatron's Short Circuit Remix)"
6. "Drunk (Beeper City's Groundpounder Dub)"
7. "Sex With Rich People (Barbeau's Lucky Synth Remix)"
8. "Drunk (Toulouse Fight Club Remix)"
9. "Understood (Low Pressure System Remix)"
10. "Sweet and Vicious (Expensive Re-edit)"
11. "Drunk (Audrock's Loaded Remix)"

Praise for Luxxury's "Rock and Roll (is Evil)"

"Unbelievably addictive... 14 stunning anthems of pure balls out disco fury. A dazzling album."

- Subba Cultcha, London

"Four and a half stars.
One of the finds of the year."
- Synthpop.net, London

"Danceable rock music with a dash of pure sex.
Instantly addictive."
- Aiding + Abetting, Chicago

"New Order and David Bowie in the penthouse with The Faint."
- Electrocore.com, LA

"Pure, decadent goodness."
- Splendid.com, NYC

<http://www.luxxury.com>
<http://www.myspace.com/luxxury>
<http://www.myspace.com/baronvonluxxury>
www.nolitarecords.com

Hot on the heels of their critically acclaimed debut Rock and Roll is Evil ("4.5 stars: one of the finds of the year"), San Francisco's Luxxury return with Sweet and Vicious: The Remixes. The album features all-new remixes of the songs on Evil by an international roster of up-and-coming producers from the UK to France, and from Brooklyn to Hollywood.

The foreign disco affair begins with London producer Janus's minimal techno take on "Drunk (London/Berlin Remix)", which evokes the Berlin sound of Ellen Allien and the Kompakt label. Vancouver-based blog darlings All Night Dance Party kick things up a notch with "Sweet and Vicious (More Vicious Than Sweet Remix)," a guaranteed dancefloor filler that might just turn you Canadian. But if it doesn't, fellow British Columbian production duo Low Pressure System are sure to seal the deal with their splendid dance-rock remix of "Understood." Meanwhile, French (as in "from France") duo Toulouse Fight Club blend DFA 1979 with LCD Soundsystem in "Drunk (Toulouse Fight Club Remix)" with glorious rock-meets-acid-synth-squelch results.

The American response starts with Brooklyn producer (and part-time Luxxury member) Devin Dirt. The term "banger" was invented with his Machine Punk'd version of "Rock and Roll is Evil (Fat Elvis Remix)" in mind. DJ Barbeau, co-founder of L.A. electro legends Dirty Sanchez, strips "Sex With Rich People (Lucky Synth Remix)" to its sleazy Moroder core, while SF's hardest working electro-house DJ Audrock gives "Drunk (Loaded Remix)" a dark, rainy night ambience.

Luxxury singer/producer Baron von Luxxury's "Drunk (Lovesick Vocoder's at Night Version)" and "Sweet and Vicious (Expensive Re-Edit)" both pay homage to the classic extended remixes of the Duran Duran and Depeche Mode 80's: keeping the original song largely intact but turning the dance-o-meter to 11. By contrast, 21-year-old Bay Area wunderkind Johnatron has produced nearly complete re-inventions of the original songs with "Sweet and Vicious (Short Circuit Remix)" and "Drunk (Groundpounder Dub)." Watch this kid, he's going far.

Luxxury (L-R Rico, Baron, Sha) prepare to slay a giant kitten (from the "Sweet and Vicious" video, dir. by Roderick Fenske)

Baron von Luxxury is a producer who has done remixes for Scissors for Lefty, Dirty Sanchez, CSS, Robots in Disguise, and Glass Candy. He is also a member of The Workout, a DJ/production team who have a monthly residency in San Francisco and a daily updated MP3 blog at www.discoworkout.com.

Label: info@NolitaRecords.com
Management: John O'Malley, john@guerrillamgmt.com
Press: Veronica Skelton, veronica@conceptpr.net
Booking: Victoria James, victoria@expensive.com
Licensing: Jeff Straw, jeff@ingrooves.com